

Philosophy & Public Affairs

A series of lectures and debates sponsored by the Department of Philosophy

Should We Vote?

Professor Jason Brennan Georgetown University.

Robert J. and Elizabeth Flanagan Family Associate Professor of Strategy, Economics, Ethics, and Public Policy at Georgetown University.

Jason Brennan is the author of seven books, including Markets with Limits, The Ethics of Voting, and Why Not Capitalism? He is currently writing Global Justice as Global Freedom for Oxford University Press.

20 September, 2016
7:00–9:00 pm

Hibbs Hall Rm. 403
900 Park Ave

Free and open to the public

For additional information contact Diane Bentley at dbentley@vcu.edu.

VCU College of Humanities and Sciences

828 W. Franklin St.
Richmond VA, 23284-2019
804-828-1674
has.vcu.edu
TheCollege@vcu.edu