

Philosophy & Public Affairs

A series of lectures and debates sponsored by the Department of Philosophy

After Open Borders: The Individual Ethics of Immigration

Professor Javier Hidalgo University of Richmond

Dr. Javier Hidalgo is a political theorist whose teaching and research interests center on ethics and international affairs, especially the ethical and public policy questions relating to immigration.

He teaches courses such as Leadership and the Humanities, Justice & Civil Society, and advanced courses on leadership in international contexts.

A Fulbright Scholar, he earned a bachelor's degree in political science and philosophy from Reed College and a master's and doctorate from the Program in Political Philosophy at Princeton University. He was a visiting scholar at Brown University prior to joining the Jepson School.

26 October, 2016
7:00–9:00 pm

Academic Learning Commons
(MCALC), Rm. 2104
1000 Floyd Avenue

Free and open to the public

For additional information contact Diane Bentley at dbentley@vcu.edu.

VCU College of Humanities and Sciences

828 W. Franklin St.
Richmond VA, 23284-2019
804-828-1674
has.vcu.edu
TheCollege@vcu.edu